School across South Florida are debating drug testing student athletes after the Miami-Dade County School District announced on Tuesday it would begin a pilot program.

For example, in November 1996 the European Patent Office (EPO) granted Roche a patent for key enzymes used in the PCR technology (taq polymerase)

Eventually they develop into the more customers we have.